

A Personal Invitation

Dear [Friend's Name],

I wanted to reach out and personally invite you to something that I believe could be really meaningful for both of us.

It's called Mary Warrior Queen—a one-day Catholic Conference happening Saturday, Feb 28th at Holy Spirit Catholic Church, Lubbock, Texas 79424. It's open to all adult and Confirmed Youth(14+), completely free, and includes lunch.

This isn't your average church event. It's bold, spiritual, and rooted in real stories of how Our Blessed Mother—Mary—is not just a comforter, but a commander in the battle for souls. The talks are powerful, and the theme is deeply moving: how Mary walks with us in our battles, leads us with courage, and draws us closer to her Son.

I'll be attending, and I'd really love for you to come with me. We could ride together, sit together, and experience the whole day side by side. It's a great opportunity to reconnect with our faith—and with each other.

If you're even a little curious or just need a day to be spiritually refueled, I truly believe this mission could be a gift.

You can register at www.MoreCatholic.com or let me know and I'll help you get signed up.

Let me know if you're open to it—I hope you'll say yes.

With love and friendship,

[Your Name]
